EIGHT-YEAR-OLD Gavin Connolly sent us this photograph of his brother, Gary, and himself. Gary comes from Leigh-on-Sea, and is on the right of the photograph. His favourite characters are Popeye and Tom and Jerry.

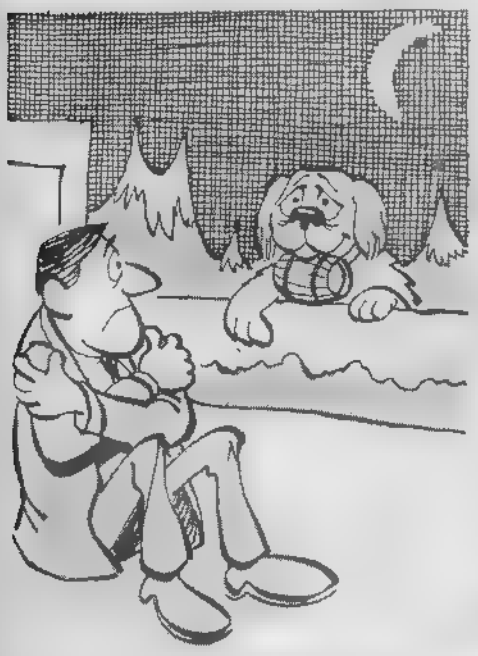
DADDY was in a Swiss hotel that was not finished. He wanted to go to the top floor. He got into a lift but when he got out he found he was on the roof, he was about to get back in the lift when it went down again. Daddy had to spend the night on the roof until the builders found him the next morning.

Christopher Blum, Winchester, Hants.



He should have yodelled, then maybe a St. Bernard dog would have come to the rescue!

Family funnies

ONE day Mum sent my sister, Carol, and me to the shop to get some bread. My Mum put 10p in Carol's hand for bread and another 10p in her other hand for us to have some sweets. As we were running down to the shop Carol fell down and started to cry. I asked her if she was hurt. "Oh no," she said, "the money has fallen out of my hands and I don't know which 10p was for the bread and which for the sweets." It made me laugh

Tony Curtis, Camborne, Cornwall

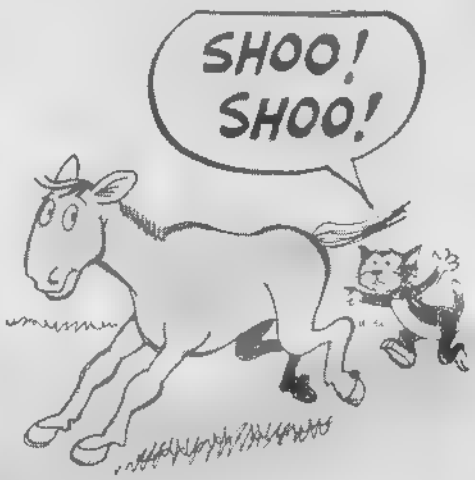
I HAVE a cat called Wayland. It may seem a strange name but it means something. It actually means ghost which lives in a cave. The idea is to leave your money and a horse which needs shoeing, and come back later to find the horse shoed and the money gone

Mark Smith, Poole, Dorset.



Does that mean your cat can shoe horses, Mark?

☆☆☆☆☆☆☆

MY hobby is going to the cinema. I have seen 124 films, 25 Disney films, 17 westerns, 14 comedies, 24 classics, 14 musicals, 4 war films, 6 animal films, 14 documentaries and 6 James Bond (all of them except "Diamonds are Forever"). And I hope to see lots more in the future

Glenn Lodwick, Wem, Shropshire.

If any more of our readers have unusual hobbies, write and tell us about them

ONCE on my way home from school on the bus, I saw that someone had left a TV Comic on the bus. I read it and I was so interested in it that I missed my stop. Now I am a regular reader of the comic. My favourite characters are Tom and Jerry and the TV Terrors

Marian Duffy, Fife, Scotland.

I hope by reading TV Comic you did not have to pay extra for the bus ride

HERE is a photograph of 11-year-old Christine Owen from Banbury, Oxfordshire. Her hobby is swimming and she can swim a mile. Christine's favourite comic characters are Popeye and TV Terrors
